MAGIC REALM Ends, SILVERTON Begins!

MAGIC REALM is indeed over, but the results are not final since Butitta reports only 4 of his 5 VP and McCabe reports 6 instead of his actual 4. I have the actual numbers around here somewhere, but they seem to be in that "safe place" all my missing stuff currently resides. We begin our third game of SILVERTON, this time including the New Mexico expansion to approximate the new Mayfair edition.

Looking ahead, 1856 should finish next time; that will be replaced by 1830 GM'd by Mark Frueh. "Boris XIII" could end in a draw next time, so sign up for the next DIP game; on the other hand, we almost have a quorum for BALKAN WARS. KREMLIN could finish up in two months, so we might have an opening to fill there. Not sure with what to replace MAGIC REALM--right now I need the space for maps. AIR BARON has a quorum, but I don't have a system worked out. CONQUISTADOR is too long and bookkeeping intensive (and my recent results in Blut und Eisen certainly show that I don't grasp the rules). TITAN needs 1 or 2 more.

TURKEY & ITALY THWACKED!! Peace Plans Proposed!

Fall 1989

XIII
1998i

KLENDATHU: Sultan Ali-Wayne is down to a single fleet, but has the dubious satisfaction of knowing that his Italian tormentor cannot force the issue if Russia and France intervene and himself is about to be chewed up by that pair. But all is not rosy for the Tsar, with his armies in Germany facing a 6 on 2, his capital in English hands, and MOS already threatened from the north and the French ready to march straight there from the west, linking with her cross-channel partner in crime. The real question of the hour is which units Italy will disband.

France to Italy: England, Russia, and Turkey wrote back to me. You haven't. Have I done something to upset you? Knife? What knife? Oh, you mean THAT little old itty-bitsy teeny-weeny knife?

France-England: If all goes well, I was able to support you into Kiel this turn and will support you into Berlin next turn.

France-Turkey: If all does not go well, you lost Constantinople this turn and will lose Smyrna next turn. Sorry about that.

France-Russia: Please write back as to how we can best cooperate against Italy.

Is Italy ready for that 4 way draw now? Let's try it again.

BORIS WORLD PRESS REVIEW

San Francisco Examiner: (Geneva, Switzerland) - Things in Europe are never simple. The powers of the continent cannot seem to settle on any sort of peace agreement. The Russians wish to annex the former German Empire into their own. The English and the Italians oppose this plan but France, England's ally since the election of Premier Sara Reichert, supports it as they wish to add North Franconia to its sovereign soil. Militant Germans have expelled the conquering Russians from WAR! Austria invaded!

MIRKWOOD: Early reports indicate that shortly after the news of Austria's punitive expedition into SER was announced, the war machines of the other Great Powers went into gear. The Russians have entered GAL in force "in defense of our Slavic cousins in SER", threatening both BUD and VIE. The Italians and Germans seem to be headed towards France while Turkey and England have assumed defensive positions. Next season will be critical to the fate of the Continent.

EMBASSY BEAT

Constantinople: The Sultan al-Ron el-Fisher sends greetings of peace and prosperity to all the nations of Europe and hopes the new century finds an end to strife and conflict among all peoples. In honor of the new year he has sent a delegation on tour to share the great Ottoman Empires great culture and art with neighboring countries, starting with BUL and eastern Europe.

Italy - Germany: Are we still in this? Don't let that "William the Conqueror" Alliance get you down.

Whitehall -- Grand Admiral Neagus has announced that the new battleships, cruisers, and destroyers will conduct fleet exercises this spring in the North Sea and Norwegian Sea. This shakedown cruise will show the flag to the Low Countries and Scandinavian countries that have expressed concern for the militant stance of some of Europe's great powers.

BORIS PRESS REVIEW

Birmingham Buzzard --- Economic Editor: Many of our business friends have remarked on the new impetus of the economy spurred in part by the military purchases of the past year. As an example, the multi-million pound cost of the new naval ships have doubled the output of Manchester and Birmingham steel mills. Also, the proposed fleet exercises will increase the need for many surplus agricultural goods. Meat, vegetables, and dairy goods are now causing increased planting by farmers and opening of new pasturages. The production of rum alone has tripled to meet the needs of our naval forces. To quote Grand Admiral Neagus, "Peace is Profitable."

Bavaria but their independence will likely be short-lived with the arrival of French "liberation" forces.

Besides this is the fact that the Russians have placed garrisons in Venice, Belgrade and Bucharest with alleged Italian cooperation but His Majesty's ministers are refusing to comment on the matter. While these troops sit in friendly cities, brave Russian seamen are preparing to defend the Karelian coast against an English assault that is guaranteed victory. Military observers on both sides of the Atlantic are seriously questioning the validity of Mother Russia's tacticians and advising the Tsar to investigate his counsel. Things in Europe are never simple.

Smyrna Scimitar: The fighting in the Balkans is viewed with mixed feelings of joy and fear. The joy of watching the Russians give the Italians what they deserve for stabbing Turkey in the back and invading our homeland and fear that when the Russian is done - We are next on the menu.

The Powers of the West England and France are out of their defensive posture and are striking East. We can but cheer them on, dig in, and hope that they are the victors before our own countries demise.

CLIFFHOME: With the Japanese establishing a firm beachhead on the mainland, the Celestial Empire is in dire danger of becoming landlocked. The fickle French, having stabbed their sole naval ally against the Japanese, will certainly cooperate with Tokyo to make it so. Meanwhile the Brits, Chinese, and Russians are circling the wagons to form a leaguer against the depravations of the Turks, Japs, and French. Oddsmakers favor Holland to be the first eliminated, being trapped between Japanese expansionism and French opportunism.

If all are agreeable, I'd like to try the Two Wolf basic game with the New Mexico expansion map and rules. It should be essentially the same as the Mayfair basic game with these differences: a) the card numbers are different, the Mayfair cash amounts are 1/5th the Two Wolf amounts, and the 1/4 Au and 1/2 Ag units in the Two Wolf version are full units (with the price adjusted) in the Mayfair set. Not sure how I'll handle the map since it's likely to be too ungainly to publish each time. Perhaps posting it on web. Vote on either the $50,000 victory or 24-turn game.

Due next time are votes on game length and orders for Turn 1a -- which track to survey (identify by cost, length, destination) and which claim to prospect.

HOUSE RULES

We'll be using the same system as Randy Cox's Cogniscentii, although I'll be using an abbreviated notation. I'll be publishing a map, space permitting, where player's routes will be indicated by placing their player # in the price box. That having been said, here are our special rules:

1. All actions in a phase are simultaneous. Conditional orders are not allowed within a phase.
2. If you prospect and win a claim, you automatically buy it (Exception: If you prospect the Deck, you retain right of denial). This allows me to replenish the available claims without fear of compromise and it discourages challenging the down-and-out to keep them that way.
3. Any trades, deliveries, etc. must be noted on all involved players' orders for that turn, otherwise the trade/delivery is voided. If a player buys a claim with goods from another player, he need not deliver the goods immediately.
4. All monies will be public. $50,000 wins the game unless the optional 24-Turn game is being played.
5. The Turn Sequence: We end our pbm turns after 1st Phase III with an exception: any prospected deck cards are then known. At that point, you indicate on your orders 1) whether you stake the claim; 2) which claims to operate; 3) any trades; 4) all deliveries including conditional deliveries based on what you net on operations rolls; 5) and which track to survey and claim to prospect next turn (track construction is automatic once surveyed). OBVIOUSLY, order #5 is all you'll send in for the first turn.
